

Learning and Leading with Technology

Leverage Technology for School Improvement!

ISTE's NECC 2007

National Educational Computing Conference

Atlanta, GA • June 24–27

at the Georgia World Congress Center

GET INTERACTIVE
AT NECC!

Join us for ISTE's most hand-on conference ever!

Bring your team of educators to join more than 18,000

- teachers
- technology coordinators
- library media specialists
- administrators
- industry representatives
- and students

from all over the world!

Program offerings include: Model Lessons (in a model classroom); Hands-on BYOL (Bring Your Own Laptop) sessions; Special Interest Cafés; moderated Problem/Solution Panels, expanded Playgrounds (including science, math, robotics, and gaming). Hands-on Labs, and much, much, more.

Promo Code: NSN0702

NECC Registration now OPEN!

Georgia educators receive a special rate—$150 until March 30. Take advantage of this opportunity to attend an international conference right here in Georgia! Register at www.iste.org/necc/registration

Special Housing Rates for Georgia Residents

GaTech Olympic Village Apartments (approximately $65/night/person, 4 people to an apartment—includes shuttles). Contact your ETTC and let them know how many rooms you want. Find your ETTC address and phone number at www.ga-edtech.org/

Don't Forget to Volunteer

Help Georgia show its Southern Hospitality! Volunteering is a great way to help out, meet people, have fun, and extend your networking opportunities.

Volunteers who do a three-hour shift receive a free NECC Volunteer T-shirt and are invited to a special volunteer breakfast.

Go to www.iste.org/necc/volunteers/, type in your e-mail address to create a new account, then indicate your areas of interest.

Help us make this the best NECC Conference ever!

www.iste.org/necc